SHARES.

My home is humble, neat and plain.

My servant rules my small domain.

It is my joy to keep my home.

And let their love be my crown.

My neighbor's home is rich and grand.

With luxuries from every land.

His carriage stands before his door.

And his servants are his pride and power.

Yet oft he comes to visit me.

And seek my ready sympathy.

For cases that his heart is true.

And he tells me of his life and love.

In many ways we blend our lives.

Often share his carriage drives.

Or feast my hearty-loving heart.

And his servants are his pride and power.

I often sit beside his board.

With costly dainties richly stored.

While silver bright and china rare.

And choicest flowers are grouped with care.

I share the pleasures of his wealth.

Without the cares that mar his health.

And love my friend, yet envy him.

For he has wealth and power and pride.

CHOOSING A WIFE.

In from the hay-field came John Westlake.

And went into the cool sitting-room.

Threw himself upon a sofa, picked up a paper, and read as follows:

"A young man having matrimony in view should ascertain before taking his important step what the house-keeping habits of his interested one are. Mary Ann, who has both fortune and happiness wrecked by overlooking this important point.

"Any man by a little strategy, can obtain the desired information. He can have some husband at his elbow, and in the morning or if he lives by the roadside he can be sure to get the information he wants.

"What paper is this?" said John,

looking for the heading. "The Crampton Herald. Yes, and this is good advice for a farmer's son. Now," soliloquized he, "I guess I had better go to marry Mary Johnson. That is, if she will have me, and I think she will—but

I must confess that I do not know much about her habits as a house-keeper. I know that everything in her house—that is, as far as I know—is in the best of order; but who takes care of the house? I don't know—perhaps Mary, perhaps Mrs. Johnson. Mary, I know, has taste; for she comes into company as neatly dressed as any young woman in the neighborhood. But I don't know the advantage of two or three years

city schooling, which fact may account for her knowledge of dress, but it argues something against her knowledge of domestic affairs—but I will find out.

"John, dinner," called the sister

Kate, poking her curly head in at the door.

While eating, John outlined a plan of operation.

"I will," thought he, "get up early to-morrow morning, go to the meadow to Johnson's corn-field, and through the corn-field to the barn-yard, cross the barn-yard to the meadow again, and then creep along this until I get to the bushes in front of the summer-kitchen, where I will see what is

OLD COMMONWEALTH

HARRISONBURG, VA.

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 26, 1888

LET THE JUDGE ANSWER.

We will cheerfully give space to Judge Newman to answer the following questions, which we put to him:

In appointing commissioners of your court, were you not controlled entirely by the considerations of their political status, instead of their peculiar fitness for the position?

Did you consider the interests of the court and of the suitors in your court in making these appointments, or did you not entirely ignore these and make your appointments solely in the interest of your political party?

Were these appointments made by you? Were they not "fixed up" by the little party-managers, and did you not make them as the clique ordered you to do?

Did you not shirk your duty as a judge, and abdicate your high prerogative at the command of the little bosses, and obey their commands in the appointment of commissioners?

If you were governed by any other considerations than the interests of suitors and the prompt, intelligent and efficient dispatch of the business of your court, do you think that you are qualified to sit on the judicial bench? Ought you not to step down and out?

If the court is run by outsiders, why not disperse with you and save the expense?

Did you make your order directing all commissioners' notices to be published in your party paper because you honestly believed that it would best subserve the interests of suitors who had the costs to pay, or because you wanted solely to help your organ?

Don't you believe that justice in this matter would better be attained by leaving the selection of the paper in which such notices should be published to the suitors themselves or their attorneys for them, as has always been done? And as a Judge don't you think the ends of justice and not party ends should be your aim?

When you step down and out next January, don't you think you would feel better if you had not used your position for partisan considerations, but had stood firm and inflexible in resisting all of the blandishments and threats of the small political bosses who have manipulated you? Now don't you?

We hope Chester Arthur, who drew the last "prize in the lottery of assassination," may be nominated by the Republicans as their Presidential candidate in 1884. It would secure a Democratic triumph beyond question.

"In the first place there was no such thing as a 'Republican secret caucus' on Monday last."—Bridgewater Journal, July 20.

We assert that there was a caucus; that it was a secret caucus, and if not "Republican," in God's name what was it?

The Journal would call it a readjuster meeting, but he should remember that the debt has been settled; that the debt has been readjusted, and what was the readjuster party is dissolving back into the National parties from which it drew its membership, and as a readjuster party has no existence, or object, or use. Much of what was the readjuster association is still following the lead of Mahone; but as the General is known of all men as a schemer and trickster, and totally unscrupulous as a politician, why there is a large falling off from the effective forces. It is also known that Mahone is a Republican, or at least that is the association in which we find him, and as he is the antipode of the Democrats, we so class him. He proclaims for himself and his adherents that "we are for Arthur because Arthur is for us." He proposes to attend the next Republican National Convention to try to secure Arthur's nomination for the Presidency. As a Democrat Mahone would not, nor would his partisans as Democrats, go into a Republican National Convention to assist in nominating a Republican candidate for President.

We understand why you want to disclaim Republican proclivities on the part of your leader and your partisans, Mr. Journal, but you cannot escape the imputation. No Mahoneite can be a Democrat. The idea of such a claim is an impossibility, as much so as perpetual motion. You are a Republican coalition, and you have pulled the wool over the eyes of many an honest Democrat, under the plea of standing by the "readjuster party." The scales are falling away, however, and the Journal will find it out after a time.

The meeting on last Court Day was therefore Republican, because in the interest of the Mahone-Arthur-Republican party, or either it was nothing. Your leaders are only holding on to the name of "readjuster" party until they are sure that that party is irrevocably bound to the Republican party.

In short, the wily Mahone is using many honest Democrats to help his Republican schemes for personal aggrandizement, all the while proclaiming "you must stand by the readjuster party!" But the readjuster party has ended its mission. The debt has been readjusted; the Supreme Court of the United States has decided the question, and every law-abiding citizen will bow to the decision of that tribunal. What else have you to do?

What principle have you to battle for, that is not contended for or against by one or the other of the National parties? None, none, except the seeking for and holding of offices under the name of readjuster.

If the "readjuster" party is not therefore Democratic, and the Wig says it is not, then it is Republican. The Journal can take either horn. But the caucus at July Court was a Mahone caucus—Mahone is in alliance with the Republican party, or at least the Arthur-Stewart faction of the Republicans—hence the caucus was a secret Republican caucus, and being composed of "battling elements" was as harmonious a congregation as if made up of the incompatible natures of "cats and dogs."

THE STRAIGHTOUT REPUBLICANS

Elsewhere to-day we print the proceedings of the meeting of the straightout Republicans held last week in Richmond. To Mahoneism this movement bodes no good. It is the first overt act of the true Republican element, which must lead to open rupture between Republicans proper and Mahoneism. Coalition prints will no doubt attempt to pooh-pooh this Republican element as insignificant, but although those who assembled may not represent more than five thousand Republicans, yet it embraces the more respectable part of the Republicans in Virginia, and the movement will no doubt rapidly gather strength, and eventually embrace all Republicans who are honest enough and independent enough to be unwilling to "bend the hinges of the knee" to Billy Mahone as Dictator.

The action at the Richmond meeting is plain and outspoken. There is not an ambiguous line in their resolutions, and it is a notice to Mahone of "war to the knife." It is the first signal gun of the approaching campaign, and William "Napoleon" will have to face foes on two sides, and stand an enflaming life in the future. The meeting declared for Blaine for President as the Republican candidate in 1884.

Blaine is the most formidable man that the Republicans could put up against the Democratic candidate.

In so declaring the meeting gave Arthurism a slap in the face, and next year we shall see two delegations from Virginia knocking at the door of the Republican National Convention, one led by "Napoleon" William, for Arthur, the other composed of straightout Republicans, for Blaine or some other distinguished leader of that party.

The lines are distinctly drawn and William "Napoleon" has received notice.

"I Rock, and you Rock, Don't Rock, so hard."

So says the ditty. The "wanted-to-be" Commonwealth's Attorney, who loans his ear marks to the last "Spirit," in reply to the COMMONWEALTH's criticisms of the July Court Kilkenny cat performance in Capt. Paul's office, will please paste the above quotation in his hat. It may save him many a lapse in the future. Besides, it is not always safe for these who have aspirations to be rushing into print. In a friendly way we tender our advice.

Another election is approaching and the new United States Court House is being brought to the front. A committee has been named, we learn, to select a site. They can easily take until November to look around. However, that sort of thing may play out after awhile and a new dodge will have to be invented. Let the committee act or resign at once.

Every newspaper, not of the coalition faith, is called by those of that ilk "Bourbon" papers. This is the name adopted by the coalition to scare ignorant people. The effect is wearing out, however.

Col. Barbee, of the Bridgewater Journal, having left town on Court Day before the secret caucus was held, did not get a chance to show his agility on the political trapeze. Didn't the ropes look right, Col., or was you afraid the web net under the trapeze was too frail?

How sad! Rockingham will not be in the next Legislature of Virginia. Other counties will please take pity on our forlorn condition.

Gains in Plains does not appear to be heavy enough to have William nominated for the Senate.

Barbee don't care a journalistic banee about the Circuit Court Judge affair, but he approves the "Spirit's" defense of the Judge on the grounds that the "laborer is worthy of his hire."

The "Valley Virginian" should remember that the spring fishing season is over for this year. Fishermen say that "Herring have quit running."

A web net at the head of the ticket and a bering catch at the tail.

The Baltimorean of last Saturday prints a fine picture of Richard P. Beirne, Esq., of the Richmond State.

The selection of Hon. John S. Barbour as chairman of the Democratic State Committee is much more than probable, and we feel sure will give entire satisfaction to the democracy of the State. Hon. John T. Harris would fill the bill if selected for this important post. The Convention cannot go wrong by selecting either of these gentlemen.

The points of the Spirit's last defence of Judge Newman are plain. However weak, his choice words, "funder malice," "hypocrisy," "deceit," "labored effort," are supposed to add the necessary spice to flavor the unsavory dish and disguise the components of the nauseous compound. "Midnight orders" do not dignify Courts, and this partisan order is disgraceful to the bench of Rockingham county.

We did not designate the Republican secret caucus held here on last Court Day as composed of "cats and dogs." We did not refer to the personnel but the harmony of the caucus. The Bridgewater Journal of last week tried to make it appear that we meant to call the participants "dogs." We desire to correct this unfair perversion of our meaning, hence this explanation. Personally there were many good men in the meeting, as good citizens as the county contains probably, but who are afflicted with that intolerable political malady Mahoneism—honestly so, doubtless, but whilst it does not detract from their personal characters and standing as citizens, yet we are sure they are not doing what is best for all in following after that "will-o'-the-wisp," Wm. Mahone.

The ringing of the Court House bell for the Democratic Mass Meeting on Court Day, struck the "Spirit's" ear as a tolling thereof. Very likely—"coming events cast their shadows before."

"Keep to the right as the law directs" would be a good motto for Judge Newman to adopt.

A SETTLED POINT.

Speaking for ourselves, we state that not a single one of the several articles which have appeared in the COMMONWEALTH on Judge Newman's indefensible partisan conduct on the bench, was either written, dictated or suggested by any member of the bar. We have no doubt that the lawyers, whose clients' interests have been disregarded by this Judge, who is running his courts to help his party, felt, and continue to feel, a profound disgust and resentment. How could they help it? But they have not given utterance through these columns, nor to us in private conversation. It did not require legal acumen to discover what Judge Newman will not deny: that in his "midnight orders" he was obeying the dictates and mandates of a clique of little bosses—a la William "Napoleon"—and that he disregarded all considerations except that of "helping the party;" and that instead of being blind to party, fearless and upright on the bench, he has been a pliant and subservient partisan.

It seems to us, however, that it is immaterial whether a farmer, or doctor, or lawyer, or merchant, or mechanic, or ourselves, wrote the articles, they are in the interest of the whole people, who are interested in preserving an honest, upright, pure and non-partisan judiciary.

Every fair minded and unprejudiced man of any party will justify and approve the strictures which we have made on Judge Newman's course. He will have some apologists, we expect, because he has some beneficiaries. "You tickle me, I'll tickle you" is not yet dead, and will be seen by the feeble attempts to justify wrong.

The "Spirit's" report of the closed-door readjuster-republican convulse of Court day, was very meagre—as much so as our own. We know that it had access to those three hours of trouble. Why didn't you publish what happened? You must be short of it!

The Valley Virginian, the "ablest Republican" paper in the South, says there is no reason why Dr. J. B. Webb should not be renominated for the Senate, and Messrs. Herring and Harnsberger for the House of Delegates. They have made faithful and efficient representatives.

So now, take notice, ye Paulites and dark horse William men, the flat hath gone forth; the old ticket must be renominated. Maj. S. M. Yost says so, and as he is the acknowledged brains of the Republican party in this section of the State, further bucking and caving on your part is wasted strength.

We fully sympathize with Mr. White Williamson and his friends, for we believe Williamson, if elected, would have made a creditable State Senator; and our heart goes out in anguish unexpressed for Mr. Rockingham Paul, in fact for all the Pauls, from John down, or up, we don't care which. We heard, last Court Day, an enthusiastic Webb man say that "Rock Paul is a good fellow, and a brother of John's, but his coat tail is too near the ground to be State Senator this fall!"

We opined last week that Webb had sat down upon Rock Paul in the secret convulse, but we had not the most remote idea that the "spanking" was to be inflicted by an Augusta county man. Rock has all of our sympathies, and we advise the readjuster choir to tune their tyres to sing, "Rock a bye, baby, Rock to sleep," &c.

The "Spirit" corrects us by saying that "Dr. Webb was not chairman" of the secret meeting on Court Day. Correct for once, Mr. "Spirit." We were in error. Dr. Webb was not chairman, but he sat down on the chairman, Mr. Rock Paul, "allee samee."

Why Col. Barbee, of the Bridgewater Journal, should seek to pervert our meaning in regard to the coalition-republican meeting held in this place on last Court day, we cannot see. We tried to say that the harmony of the aforesaid meeting equalled that which is commonly believed to exist where cats and dogs compose the assembly. It is a well-known fact to almost every one that a great antipathy exists between these animals. Hence, when together there is a lack of harmony. The attempt of the Bridgewater Journal to make it appear that we characterized those composing the meeting as "cats and dogs," or calling any portion of our fellow-citizens "dogs," is one of those ridiculous perversions of the truth that from the reading of what we did say, appears to have some object behind it. It is well-known to Col. Barbee that but few of the readers of the Journal are readers of the COMMONWEALTH. Hence the injustice of his construction of our language is more unkind to us. The Journal readers generally accept as true what it says, when it declares that we called its partisans "dogs." Now we emphatically state that our words bore no such legitimate construction, and we hope Col. Barbee will do us the justice to correct his statement.

Hon. John Paul promised to speak in Staunton last Monday. Why didn't he go? Has that web trapped the whole family?

"Pecavi" Charley D., is so brilliantly logical in the last "Spirit." Because Democrats, in bowing to the decision of the Supreme Court on the "coupon-killer" bill, declare a purpose not to re-open the State debt question, he logically deduces that we must get down on our marrow-bones and acknowledge our great sins and cry out: "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!" Hardly. We abandon the issue because it is our duty as good citizens to bow to the decisions of the Supreme Court of the land, whether we believe the decision to be right or wrong. Your party always contended that your people were stronger than the Courts, and that Courts should be subservient to the will and caprice of the majority. We thought differently. We bow to Courts—especially of the last resort—and leave to time the correction of errors and wrongs, at least where we have reason to believe the decision is not the result of partisan malignity.

PAUL'S CHAIRMAN SPEAKS.

Congressman Calkins, of Indiana, who was the Republican chairman of the committee on elections, of which committee Hon. John Paul was a member, and rendered himself conspicuously famous by his partisan votes, is outspoken in advocating an alliance with Mahone in Virginia and Chalmers in Mississippi. He says the readjusting of the State debt no longer cuts any figure in Mahone's light, and that practically it is a republican movement. In view of what Mahone has accomplished he thinks it would be folly to pull away from him. With regard to Chalmers, he does not believe they can crush him out and he will be heard from before the fight is over.

We repeat it: Judge Newman's "midnight order" was the first ever issued from the bench in Rockingham bearing upon the face broad-fronted malignity and founded in partisan hate.

The strike of the telegraph operators is the engrossing theme which occupies the time and attention of both the press and the people. We are with the operators heart and soul and hope they may succeed in securing their rights as working men and women against that gigantic monopoly known as the Western Union Telegraph Company. All of the telegraph lines but this one appear to be ready to concede to the demand of the strikers. Mr. Jay Gould manages the Western Union, and we are anxious to see this pure-blood aristocrat brought to terms. The strike has been the most orderly of any that has ever occurred in this country, and possibly anywhere else, and is the largest. Success to the operators.

Nobody seems to want the Republican nomination for President in 1884. "Straws show," &c.

The operators have "allotted the batteries" of the Western Union Company.

A web has been woven around the readjuster rock. Yost so!

Straightout Republicans.

A meeting of the State Central Committee of the Republican party of Virginia was held in this city yesterday. A quorum being present, J. W. Cochran, chairman of the committee, tendered his resignation; which being accepted, he nominated Hon. John F. Desandorf for the position, and he was unanimously elected.

After transaction of other business the following resolutions, offered by Mr. John Callahan, as amended by Gen. Williams C. Wickham, were adopted:

Whereas, the representatives of the Republican party of Virginia, it is incumbent upon us, and we feel it a duty we owe to our party, to give some expression to the course recently pursued by Hon. John F. Desandorf;

Resolved, That we most heartily and cordially endorse the course of Mr. Desandorf in his open and manly defence of Republican principles. His unbounded devotion to our party at all times and under the most adverse circumstances commends for him the admiration and respect of this entire committee.

Resolved, That the action of the Administration in throwing its influence against Republican candidates in Virginia at the instance of the bosses of the Readjuster party, and thus defeating them, and in removing from office Republicans who have been always active in the support of their party and its principles, and placing in their positions men who, fighting under false colors and pretences, refuse to acknowledge themselves to be Republicans, meets with our most unqualified disapproval, and is calculated to destroy the party in Virginia and to seriously weaken it in all parts of the country.

Resolved, That we declare our devoted attachments to the principles of the Republican party, and of our purpose to adhere to them and to endeavor to have them honestly and faithfully carried out.

O. E. Hine submitted a resolution detailing a plan of organization for the party, which was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Callahan, Mr. Otis H. Russell was elected treasurer of the committee.

On motion of Mr. R. E. Freeman, of Rockbridge, the following resolution was adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved, That among the many able men whose names are being connected with the candidacy for the next President of the United States, James G. Blaine is longo intervallo the preference of the Republicans of Virginia, and we would hail his nomination and election as the brightest harbinger of prosperity and fraternity for the whole of this broad land.—Richmond State, July 20.

To the Public.

In announcing myself as a candidate for Mayor of Harrisonburg, and it having been circulated through the town that I am in favor of an increase of taxation upon the town property, I have to state that such is not true; but that I have always advocated improvement, and believing as I do that the rate of taxation is sufficient to meet the demands, I am not in favor of an increase.

Respectfully,

W. B. LURTY.

LEMUEL VAWTER, BOOT & SHOE MAKER, OPPOSITE SICKLETT'S CORNER.

HAVING re-opened his place of business in Harrisonburg, Va., on Main Street, in the store building, opposite Henry Shacklett's store, would say to his old patrons and all whom it may concern, that he is prepared to serve them at short notice in any work in his line. He works the very best machine, and will employ none but superior workmen. He yields the palm to no competitor in any particular for first-class work. Give me a call and see what you can have done at my shop.

A Card from General Beauregard and Early.

A publication headed, "Are the Louisiana Lottery drawings fair," which originally appeared in several Northern and Western papers as an advertisement, by a hostile lottery company, as we believe, has been copied into a number of other papers, doubtless as an advertisement also. The charges, insinuations, and innuendoes contained in said publication are false in every respect, so far as they affect the fairness of the drawings of the Louisiana Lottery Company. When the undersigned had charge of only of the semi-annual drawings, they counted the tubes containing the numbers previous to each of those drawings to be certain that all were put up in the wheel. Since they have had charge of the monthly drawings also, the wheel has been under their exclusive control, and after each drawing they have restored all the drawn numbers to the wheel, locked it, and sealed it in such a manner as to render it impossible for the numbers to be reached or interfered with without their knowledge. They have thus been always certain that all the numbers were in the wheel at each drawing, and they alone are responsible for the integrity of the drawings. The suggestion that each ticket holder, on the day of and before each drawing, should be allowed to call out his number and see it put in the wheel, is too absurd to deceive any one who ever witnessed a single number drawing, and any lottery company which resorts to any such trick proves itself to be a fraud.

The intimation that persons have been paid to allow their names to be published as the winners of prizes in this Lottery is also false and without the slightest foundation in fact. Millions of dollars have been paid out by the Company in prizes through the banks and express agencies, as can be seen from the list of prize winners in New Orleans, and the Express Agents in New York, Washington City, and in this city, as well as from the winners of the prizes whose names have been given to the public.

Signed,
G. T. BEAUREGARD, Com'r.

By Universal Accord, AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS are the best of all purgatives for family use. They are the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, and their extensive use, by physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations, proves them the best and most effectual purgative pill that medical science can devise. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use, and being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take. In intrinsic value and curative powers no other Pills can be compared with them; and every person, knowing their virtues, will employ them when needed. They keep the system in perfect order, and maintain in healthy action the whole machinery of life. Mild, searching and effective, they are especially adapted to the needs of the digestive apparatus, derangements of which they prevent and cure, if timely taken. They are the best suited to the delicate system of children and weakened constitutions, where a mild but effectual cathartic is required. For sale by all druggists.
